

The Central California Writing Project
presents
The CCWP Annual Fall Conference

HONORING ALL VOICES: Valuing Relevance, Emotion, Access, and Equity

November 5, 2011

Hosted by: Pajaro Valley High School
500 Harkins Slough Road
Watsonville, CA 95076

9:00am-1:30pm

A writing conference focusing on English Language Learners and California's Common Core Content Standards for English Language Arts & Literacy in History/Social Studies, Science, and Technical Subjects

Here are some of the workshop titles you can look forward to:

*What If Columbus Could Text. . . Writing Across the Curriculum (4-12)

*Realizing A Cultural side of Me (K-12+)

*The Daily Journal- a Vehicle for Genre Practice, Revision Strategies, & Authentic Voice (3-12)

*Mind the Gap: High School to Community College Writing Instruction (9-12+)

*Exploring and De-Mystifying the Writing Process for English Learners and Their Teachers (K-5)

CCWP Fall Conference Registration

Conference fee: $20 per person or $50 for a school team of 3 or more teachers

Complete this registration form and send to CCWP, Education Department, UCSC, 1156 High Street, Santa Cruz, CA 95064

Phone: (831)-459-4506

Deadline for registration: Oct. 30 (Please print clearly.)

Name _____ email: _____ school: _____

Name _____ email: _____ school: _____

Name _____ email: _____ school: _____

Amount enclosed: $ _____

If you are paying when you arrive at the conference, you can register simply by going online to <http://ccwritingproject.org> and clicking on the registration link.

For more information, contact Shannon at theccwp@gmail.com